

WAYSIDE CROSS CELEBRATION!

PICNIC – 2:30 PM
EVENING PRAYER – 4:00 PM
April 25, 2010

On the top of a hill, not far from Parkfield, stands a large, stone Celtic cross. It marks the place where Bishop Nichols would often stop in his journeys to rest his horse and for prayer. The view of the surrounding countryside is magnificent! The cross was put in place on April 14, 1926. People still journey to this peaceful place to seek quiet, solitude, and to stand in awe before the breathtaking scenery.

Please bring your own lunch, including beverages, lawn chairs, blankets, and whatever other “creature comforts” you might need. There will be restroom facilities available.

There will be a caravan leaving the San Miguel Mission parking lot promptly at 2:00 PM. The mission is located 10 miles north of Paso Robles on Hwy. 101.

If you would like to find your own way there, take Hwy. 101 north from Paso Robles to the San Miguel exit. About 3 blocks north of the Mission, follow the sign for Parkfield pointing east. Crossing the river on the new bridge, turn left onto Indian Valley Road and follow the signs to Parkfield. Watch for the “Wayside Cross” signs on the left approximately 14 miles from San Miguel.
